CURBSTONE CHIT AND CHAT.

The News of the City Dished Up for The Bee Readers.

PERSONAL POINTS POINTEDLY PUT.

Home News and Events Transpired Since our Last Issue—Other Matters Worthy of Careful Consideration.

One of the brightest little children in town is the little daughter of Mr. Geo. F. Rodgers of the Post office department.

Do you want first class Job work done, if so call at the office of the BEE.

Hon. C. H. J. Taylor delivered an address at Hampton, Va. Tuesday.

Hon. H. C. C. Astwood has withdrawn his call for a convention to convene in Montgomery, Ala.

The BEE will tell you all the news.

Hon. C. H. J. Taylor left for Norfolk, Va. to deliver an address Tuesday.

The colored district democrats will hold a convention to send delegates to the Indianapolis convention.

Col. M. M. Holland is conducting the Alpha Insurance Co. and Bank.

The poor girls had their day in the High School examination last week.

Miss Mary Jane Patterson is still sick.

WANTED: Immediately two printers and one pressman. Also two boys who want to learn printing business in all its branches.
Address manager of the BEE.

Col. J. W. Ross, Commissioner of the District speaks in the highest terms of trustee L. A. Cornish.
Col. Ross in conversation with a BEE representative, said "that he makes a good trustee and he has given general satisfaction."

The private picnic at Bay Ridge July 4th at the beautiful residence of Mr. Charles R. Douglass will be one of the grandest affairs ever given.

Sporting Notes

John S. Johnson, the great prize wheelman, broke the record of the worlds bicycle record at Watchham Mass., yesterday, covering a mile in 1:56 flat.

A Flushing jockey club has been organized at Flushing, N. Y. It is independent of the Sheepshead Bay and Coney island Jockey clubs.

It is rumored that the Pennsylvania State League is on its last legs, and the breaking will probably occur next week.

Great interest is being taken in the finish fight between Billy Steffers, the Ohio lightweight champion and Charley Slusher, champion of Kentucky, which occurs at Toledo next Friday night, before the Manhattan club. Steffers defeated "Kid" McCoy recently.

Only twelve Washington sports occupied the Amphitheatre at Stubener's road-house Tuesday night to see the sparring bouts, which had been announced to come off there.

Charley Holcomb, the colored lightweight champion of the District, appears anxious for a battle and will concede weight to either Hite Peckham or Jim Jayne for a meeting. If either will get to 138 pounds Holcomb can get backing for $100 besides the purse to be fought for. He prefers Jaynie, as he wants the question of best man settled by a decisive battle.

LOW RATES TO DENVER, COL.

The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. Co. will sell round trip excursion tickets to Denver, Col. from all points on its lines east of the Ohio River, July 19th, 20th and 21st, good for return on trains leaving Denver July 27th, August 2nd and 25th; tickets will also be sold to Denver August 8th, 9th and 10th, valid for return passage on trains leaving Denver August 19th, 25th, and September 13th.
The rate from Baltimore and Washington will be $47.40 and correspondingly low rates from other points.
Passengers taking B. and O. have a choice of routes, going via Pittsburg, Akron and Chicago; via Grafton, Bellaire and Caicago, or via Parkersburg, Cincinnati and St. Louis; double daily service of express trains, with Pullman sleeping and dining cars on all routes.
6-30-3t.

JULY 4TH EXCURSION.

The Capital City Guards Independent Corps will give a grand Excursion to Notley Hall Wed. July 4th. Boat leaves 7th Wharf at 10 a. m. and 6 p. m: Music by the Monumental Orchestra.
Tickets 25 cents.

THE LATEST FASHIONS.

A French waist of heliotrope plan de soie, with revers and sleeves of iris satin. Collar and epaulettes, also vest of embroidery, tied at the waist with satin ribbon. Little barette of satin across the front. Cuffs of peau de soie.

Paris promenade suit of mauve satin with pedlum shaped overskirt of cashamere, which is bordered the whole length and around with galoon faconne. The waist part of the dress forms a blouse the fullness of which is drawn into a draped satin belt. Trimming of galoon faconne forms yoke at the neck.

It is the utmost importance for a woman who aims to be stylish and at the same time practices economy, to give the best care to her clothes, so as to have them look always neat and increase their duration as much as possible.

Every time you take off a dress it should be brushed and shook in the open air and thus remove any creases it might have contracted. The skirts must have three loops one in the middle and one on each side, inside the top to hang them up by. Hang them on the same hook so as to give the skirt its full sway, and prevent those ugly wrinkles one often sees on comparatively new dresses.

On the waist a loop should be fastened below the collar inside as seen on gentlemen's coats.

Dresses not worn often such as dinner or reception dresses, especially when the season is at an end, should be put into muslin bags of the same length of the skirt, so as to give it plenty of room.

WIFE OF THE NEW RECORDER.

From the st. Joseph Mirror,

Hon. C. H. J. Taylor, the newly appointed Register of Deeds at Washington, D. C., after spending a few days in Kansas City, Kansas, his home, left for Washington, Tuesday night.

Mrs. Taylor who is quite a refined and cultured lady formerly of Iowa, does not immediately follow the Recorder, but rather will visit friends and relatives in Kansas and Iowa, until the last of August or first of September. Then she goes to Washington to preside over the new home and assist in the daily that the Hon. C. H. J. intends to run in the East.

From the two Kansas cities there are many disappointed persons, who since the senate's confirmation of their townsman, had dreams of clerkships and residences in Washington.

But they have realized that not anything is sure as the unexpected.

The Wonders are still in the lead and doing wonderful work.

A HAT COUNCIL.

What has the equal rights council done since its organization?
Over three hundred dollars has been collected; an attempt to interfere in a case of some one else to enable the organization to gain some politicial notoriety.
The council will be a thing of the past.

TEN DAYS AT NIAGARA FALLS $10.

THEY SAY.

Don't disappoint yourselves.

Great men often do small things.

Don't be discouraged when you make a mistake.

Be honest with your dealings with your fellow man.

Let us be united in the secret of success.

Don't tell all you know.

When you think you are safe that is the time you are in danger.

Prof. Langston denied having abused Miss Wells.

He had an interview but said nothing about Miss Wells.

The BEE is saying what Mr. Langston said to a representative.

Prof. J. M. Gregory is writing a book entitled B. K. Bruce.

The educational convention in Baltimore will be largely attended.

Be up and doing is the watchword.

He laughs best who laughs last.

The negro is an enemy to himself.

You are often condemned by those you have rendered assistance.

Put money in your purse is what the ancient said.

Money is a power when you know how to use it.

District attorney Birney is making a good officer.

He is the most reasonable prosecuting officer that ever held the position.

He will not try a man for fun.

He must be convinced that he has a case before he will prosecute you.

The BEE is the people's true defender.

You can rely on everything you see in the BEE.

Be sure you are right and then go ahead.

The people will all derive the fate of the next republican convention.

Genl. Clarkson passed through the city this week enroute to Denver, Col.

Have you heard the news?

Don't be alarmed when you do.

Ex recorder Bruce will begin business next fall.

Trustee Cornish will be re-appointed.

His enemies to the contrary notwithstanding.

He has made a good trustee.

He can be relied on.

Dr. Williams is in Annapolis, Md.

The colored democrats are enthusiastic over their convention at Indianapolis.

Men who do foolish things can't expect their friends to follow them.

Friend Barnes gave good advice.

It is well to take advice of our friends some times.

We don't know it all.

We all live to learn.

The BEE will be true to its name.

FREDRICK DOUGLASS.

One of the most remarkable representatives of the negro race living to-day, is Fredrick Douglass, the "sage of Anacostia." He looks just as robust and healthy as he did thirty years ago. His activity is to equal that of a man of forty. It is surprising to many how this sage ratains his vital powers and good health.

Mr. Douglass is not the man to hold malace against his enemies.

He is liberal hearted and kind and very often he is imposed upon by iterant sharks, whose stock in trade is to fleece.

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF
PURE COD LIVER OIL
AND PHOSPHATES OF
LIME, SODA, IRON.
The truly wonderful effect produced by Dr. Alex. B. Wilbor's Compound of Pure Cod-Liver Oil and Phosphates renders it beyond doubt the most perfect preparation of the kind known to-day. Consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, debility, wasting diseases and all scrofulous humors disappear under its influence. It is almost as palatable as cream, and can be taken with pleasure by delicate persons and children, who, after using it, become very fond of it. It assimilates with the food, increases the flesh and appetite, builds up the nervous system, restores energy to mind and body, creates new, rich and pure blood, in fact, rejuvenates the whole system. Flesh, blood, nerve, brain. This preparation is far superior to all other preparations of cod-liver oil; it has many imitators, but no equals. The results following its use are its best recommendations. Be sure, as you value your health, and get the genuine. Manufactured only by DR. ALEXANDER B. WILBOR, Chemist, Boston, Mass.

A $20 A Day Man!

A VOICE from Ohio. Here is a portrait of Mr. Gerrison, of Salem, Ohio. He writes: "Was at work on a farm for $20 a month; I now have an agency for E. C. Allen & Co's albums and publications and often make $30 a day." (Signed) W. H. GARRISON.
William Kline, Harrisburg, Pa., writes: "I have never known anything to sell like your album. Yesterday I took orders enough to pay me over $25." W. J. Kilmore, Bangor, Me., writes: "I take an order for your album at almost every house I visit. My profit is often as much as $20 for a single day's work." Others are doing quite as well; we have not space to give extracts from their letters. Every one who takes hold of this grand business piles up grand profits.

THE COLORED ATTORNEYS

Indications point daily to the success of the colored attorneys who practice at the bar of the courts in this city.

The colored people who have heretofore had but little confidence in colored lawyers are realizing the fact that they guardtheir interest better and defend them with as much zeal as the more fortunate white member of the bar.

The idea prevailed among certain classes of colored people that a colored attorney was not respected in the courts as much as his brother in white. There is not a judge on the bench who entertains the slightest disrespect for a colored member of the bar. If anything the colored attorney is treated with more consideration.

No judge has any respect for an ignoramous at the bar any more than the people who employ one to attend to their business.

All that the court demands is respect and no gentleman will be disrespectable to the court.

There is but one draw back to our lower courts and that is the right to appeal from either branch of our lower courts.

Among a few of the colored attorneys who are doing well the BEE takes this opportunity of naming James H. Smith, who has a large civil practice and no doubt one of the oldest colored members of the bar; John A. Moss, who at one time had the largest civil and criminal practice of any member of the bar, but, his defense of officers who club colored people, which was no fault of his, has caused his practice to fall off. W. C. Martin, deals largely in pension claims, civil and criminal practice. R S. Smith and J. F. Bundy are mashing an extensive civil practice, E. M. Bewlet is a justice of the peace, and he also has a large civil and criminal practice; L. W. Pulies deals in pension claims and no doubt has the largest pension business of any colored attorney. He has in his employment a very accomplished type writer and short hand lady assistant.

The colored attorney is an object of the present and not of the past.

J. M. Ricks is making money and he knows how to keep it. Ricks is a hustler.

NEVER BE PRESIDENT.

There is some talk about making Senator Cameron the nominee of the republican party in 96.

This certainly must be a joke on the part of the managers of the republican party.

If Senator Cameron should be the successful nominee of the republican party in 96, every negro would leave the party.

The negroes would just as leave support a democrat as they would support a republican of the Cameron stripe.

If the republican managers want to see a real live and healthy division in the colored vote let the republican convention nominate Senator Cameron.

The negroes will think for themselves in the future; they don't propose to allow others to think for them and express their thoughts as being their own.

THE STRIKE.

There has been a boycott declared against the Pullman Palace Car Company by the American Railway Union.

It is about time that national legislation should be made against an organized body of men who do nothing but make efforts to destroy our great institutions.

Boycotting should be made punishable by imprisonment and nothing less.

If the northern capitalists would give the negro a show in the rail road service there would not be so much trouble in the country among laborers.

The people should open their eyes.

THE SHYLOCKS.

This city is famous for negro enterprises. These enterprises and schemes are not inaugurated by the citizens, but by a class of played out politicians, who have no reputation at home and who come to this city and impose upon the citizens.

There has been no enterprise that has ever been started that has proven to be a success. There are a lot of sharks who are full of tricks and schemes who tell plausiable yarns and present to the people bogus enterprises all on paper that exists long enough to rob the people, and then they disband with the peoples money in their pockets.

The BEE is of the opinion that the people have been robbed enough to put a stop to these bogus institutions. These corrupt methods have been used in this city ever since the emancipation of the negro and still the people continue to allow themselves to be hoodwinked by a set of political montebanks, and dead beats who have no visible means of support.

The only reliable institutions in this city, that the people can trust with safety are the Capital Savings and Alpha Banks.

Do the citizens ever stop to examine into the records of men who claim to represent these other bogus enterprises? Do the people ever stop long enough to examine the character of these enterprises? No!! Jim Jones, a fine talker will call a meeting and tell some cock and bull story and give a race pride racket, to the effect that the colored people are divided and never will become a race because they are opposed to each other.

The next thing that is presented is a set of wind certificates of bogus shares printed on paper from five to ten dollars per share, and all they ever get or ever expect to get, or have ever gotten, is this piece of paper. Never yet has there been any dividends declared.

You are told however, that you will get a dividend within a year.

During that year, the money that has been collected on the certificates of stock goes to pay the officers of the institution.

The officers never earn enough so they say, to give the share holders one penny. These cute individuals select some school teacher and fill her head full of glittering generalities and smokey ideas, and who imagines that she is a big gun because she has been made an officer, but, in fact only a tool to advance the notorious cheating schemes of these shylocks.

Let the people of Washington learn some sense and cease encouraging these sharks and thieves

These bogus organizations that are established should be investigated.

Mr. Casimer Peuer has been elected president of France. The general impression among the American legislators is that he is a good man and a fine statesman.

The cowardly assassination of the President of France by an Italian name Santo was one of the greatest shocks to the civilized world.

If the negro democratic league of the District insists on having negro republicans removed they should see that negro democrats are appointed.

There is a big fight in Illinois against Senator Colum.

Our laws must be very defective that rail road companies cannot be protected against an unlawful boycott that is being systematically inaugurated throughout the country.

Our public schools have been closed and the trustees, teachers, and our superintendent deserve the congratulations of the people.

IS HAMMETT RIGHT.

Dr. C. M. Hammett, must do some thing to keep himself before the people.

His last crazy move was to recommend to the commsssioners the importance of taking up all the pumps in the city, because the water is diseased.

If there ever was a man who didn't have all that he should have, it is the present Health Officer.

The well at the corner of 10th and K sts. n. w., has the finest water in the world and for fifty years Mr. John Seitz and his family have used this water. His children and great grand children have used this water and have never been sick.. Hammett is more offensive than the water.

Needing a tonic, or children who want building up, should take
BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.
It is pleasant to take, cures Malaria, Indigestion, Biliousness and Liver Complaints.

CARNOT ASSASSINATED.

The President of France Stabbed by An Anarchist.

Paris, June 25.—Sadi Carnot, President of the Republic, was stabbed mortally at 9:15 o'clock last evening in Lyons by Cesare Giovanni Santo, an Italian Anarchist, twenty-one years old. President Carnot went to Lyons to visit the exhibition. He left the Chamber of Commerce banquet, given in his honor, shortly after 9 o'clock, and walked to his carriage, which was waiting in the Place de Labourse. He had hardly taken his seat when Santo, a newspaper in his hand, pressed through the crowd and sprang upon the carriage step. President Carnot started slightly. Santo snatched a dagger from the newspaper and plunged it into the President's abdomen near the liver. The President sank back unconscious. He was taken at once to the Prefecture and the most skilful surgeons in the city were summoned. Meantime Santo was arrested. The news spread swiftly to every part of the city. Infuriated crowds filled the streets. Before 10 o'clock an Italian restaurant had been sacked and the police were obliged to strain every nerve to protect the Italian Consulate. As Santo sprang from the carriage step and tried to escape, he was seized and surrounded. The President had repeated hemorrhages after he was removed to the Prefecture. He sank gradually, but steadily, until 12:45 o'clock, when he died.

A TUG FOUNDERS

More Than Thirty Men Lost Off Sandy Hook.

New York, June 25.—The tug James D. Nichol, with about seventy-five members of the Herring Fishing Club, foundered off Sandy Hook, and about thirty were drowned. The causes given for the disaster are that the boat was overloaded, and the shifting of the passengers to the lee side caused her to keel over. Those rescued were saved by the Algonquin and the tugs Governor, Wallace B. Flint and the R. J. Moran. Those drowned were Walter Buckridge, John Dunn, Charles Graham, J. Higgins, Frank McAleer and Frank Schultz. Those missing are Charles Burkhart, Henry Bishop, Herman Eberhart, Frederick Fay, Edward Fay, S. Griesinan, Samuel Gautner, James Hayes, J. Higgins, Jacob Hebrauck, Joseph Hebrauck, Dell Horan, Louis Hocherin, Albert Hammond, Gustave Kirchner, William Kirchner, William Langdon, Henry Miller, William Moore, John McNamara, Hugh Milholland, Albert Pabst, Henry Peining, John Quinn, William Schultz, Thomas Schlesinger, Frederick Underhelt, George Wanke, Andrew Weissler and Christian Zahn.

MANY DEAD.

Over 250 Victims of the Pont-y-Pridd Mine Disaster.

London, June 25.—Further exploration of the Pont-y-Pridd mine, in which an explosion occurred Saturday, has shown that the disaster was far beyond anything imagined at first. The number of dead is 251. The original report that only two hundred men were in the mine was due to a misunderstanding on the part of the manager, who thought that a shift of miners had just come up. Many of the dead bodies were mangled beyond recognition. Crowds of women, who have not slept since the explosion, still surround the pit, awaiting news from husbands and brothers. Exploration of the mine is slow and difficult, owing to the blocking of the galleries with wreckage and dead horses.

Drowned While Yachting.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 25.—Five persons were drowned yesterday in the East River about 400 feet from the Atlantic Yacht Club at the foot of Fifty-sixth street, Brooklyn. The drowned people, who are at present unknown, were two men, one light, the other dark; two women and a child. Another child, a girl about two years old, was rescued. They were all evidently Swedes or Germans. They were in a cat boat and were struck by a squall that arose about 10:30 o'clock.

The Outrage of Gen. Tarsney.

Denver, June 25.—A mass meeting of about 50,000 persons was held in Lincoln Park yesterday to condemn the outrage perpetrated upon Adjt.-Gen. Tarsney in Colorado Springs. Speeches were made by I. N. Stevens, T. J. O'Donnell, Gov. Waite, J. B. Belford and Judge Pratt. Gen. Tarsney is very weak, and he still suffers keenly from his injuries. He complains of his back, which was injured in the struggle to put him in the carriage at the Alamo Hotel.

Frye's Army Reaches Washington.

Washington, June 25.—After a march across the continent the California contingent of the army of the unemployed, 125 strong, under command of "Gen." Frye, entered Georgetown yesterday on their canal boat, and marched out to the Coxey camp at Bladensburg. Some of the men seem to be under the impression that they will be fed by the Government as long as they remain here.

The National Saengerfest.

New York, June 25.—The concerts of the National Saengerfest at Madison Square Garden attracted immense audiences. The competitive singing by societies was the feature. In the evening 6,000 voices united in the choruses. Among the societies participating are those of Troy, Albany, Syracuse, Buffalo, Elmira and Utica. The Troy Maennercher, Albany Maennercher and Buffalo Orpheus are among the competitors for prizes.

M. CASIMIR-PERIER.

He is Chosen to the Presidency of France.

Paris, June 27.—At a joint meeting of the two chambers this morning M. Casimir-Perier was elected to the Presideney of France, receiving 451 votes. His chief opponents were M. Dupuy and M. Brisson. M. Casimir-Perier was elected on the first ballot by a majority of 17.

An attempt has been made to blow up the railway bridge near Montlucon, in the department of Allier. A man arrested on suspicion had dynamite cartridges in his possession. This is the only instance of Anarchistic activity in France at present. Louise Michel, the notorious woman Anarchist, said: "The execution of Carnot was no more than a simple act of justice. In Carnot a whole class and the whole Bourgeois world had been struck at. Carnot embodied the execrable capitalist of the Republic."

Rome, June 27.—The belief here is that there was some connection between the recent attempt on the life of Crispi and the crime of Santo. Legas left Marseilles eight days after Santo left Cette for Lyons, both having previously been given arms.

Lyons, June 27.—The trial of Santo has been set for July 23. Upward of 2,000 arrests have been made here in connection with the anti-Italian riots. Nearly all of the ringleaders are in custody. The police believe the worst is over.

At the joint meeting of the chambers, when called to order, M. Michelin created a tumultuous scene by shouting: "I demand the suppression of the Presidency of the Republic." Several Socialists cried, "Vive revolution." All were quickly silenced by the President.

KILLED ON THE TRACK.

An Unfortunate Young Man Meets Death —The Body Fearfully Mangled.

Albany, June 27.—Another unknown man was cut to pieces by a train on the D. & H. road at North Albany. The man was evidently walking along the tracks when struck, and the body was dragged over the ties for a distance of thirty feet. Death must have been instantaneous. The body was removed to Campion's undertaking rooms by Coroned Connors, and will be held for identification.

The examination showed the skull had been crushed, both arms broken and the left foot cut off at the ankle. The body was that of a young man about twenty-five years of age. The description is about as follows: Weight, 160 pounds; height, 5 feet 9 inches; sandy hair and fair complexion; dressed in a blue plaid coat and vest, dark ribbed pants, black outing shirt, with white stripes, plaid calico undershirt and a black soft hat.

There were no papers or letters on the body which could serve as a means of identification. It is believed that he was a stranger in this vicinity.

IN CONGRESS.

Senator Hill and the Income Tax—Electric Road Scheme.

Washington, June 27.—When the Senate took up the tariff bill this morning Senator Hill made another protest against the discrimination of the income tax.

The project for an electric road between Washington and New York has been brought before Congress by a bill to incorporate the National Rapid Transit Company. Ex-Representative Hemphill and Washington capitalists are behind the scheme.

The Monster Search Light.

New York, June 27.—The monster Schuckert searchlight that pierced eighty-four miles of darkness, from Chicago to Milwaukee, during the World's Fair, and was purchased by the United States Government, was tried officially for the first time at Sandy Hook. The tests were to determine whether the light is of practical value for coast defence purposes and for signalling, and they will continue every night for a week. The trials indicated that the light will do all that the Schuckert Company promised.

Salvador's Government.

San Salvador, June 27.—The Government is formally organized. The new Cabinet is as follows: Prudenciano Alfaro, Minister of the Interior; Jacinto Castellanos, Minister for Foreign Affairs; Cornelia Lemus, Minister of Finance; Gen. Estanislas Perez, Minister of War. Alfaro also takes charge of the Department of Public Works and Castellanos the Ministriel of Justice and Public Instruction.

The Umbrella Murder Case Out.

London, June 27.—In the Old Bailey the Grand Jury threw out the bill for manslaughter found against Gen. John Hewston, of California, by a coroner's jury on June 5, on the charge of causing the death of George Burton, a street musician, by poking the point of an umbrella into his left eye.

The Missing Female Financier.

Williamsburg, June 27.—The latest news concerning Mrs. Kate Bradford, the missing financier, is that she is not far from Greenwood Lake, N. J., where her uncle, Charles Kennedy, was recently employed in a hotel. It was reported yesterday that some of her victims were hot on her trail, and that she would soon be run down.

Gone to the Happy Hunting Grounds.

Abdul Aziz Married.

Tangier, June 25.—Sultan Abdul Aziz has been married to Julia Frschid, daughter of the uncle of the late Sultan.

MARKET REPORT.

ALBANY, June 29, 1894.

The New Orleans "Sugar Bowl" is enthusiastic over the orange crop of Louisana, and says it will be larger than last year's because so many young groves are coming into bearing Along the lower Mississippi river, for a distance of 100 miles, young groves are seen on many places, on both sides of the river, and from a point of 50 miles below New Orleans, to the sea, groves are almost continuous. That is the principal industry of that densely populated section of our State, and we now notify our friends in Florida and California that Louisiana will not long remain behind either of them in orange production. Any person who ever ate a ripe Lousiana orange can testify that they are superior in flavor to any grown elsewhere. This is because of the wonderful fertility of our soil—a rich deposit like that along the Nile.

NEW YORK CITY.

D. A. Green, 429, 4th Ave.

SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1894.

Locals.

The live long maid of Mr. and Mrs. Allison Nailor, Mrs. Mary Ferguson, died on Saturday June 23rd, and was buried Tuesday from the Berean Baptist church.

It was one of the largest funerals that ever took place in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Nailor were the chief mourners, and was held in the highest esteem by their distinguished citizens.

Mrs. Ferguson has been in the family for 35 years and always escorted Mrs. Nailor where-ever she went. The old Washingtonians were out in full, among them were, Mr. Smith Wormley and wife, John Lewis Webster, Edward Watson. John Pier, Thomas Welch. James Roe, Capt. W. P. Gray and wife, Dan'l Warner and wife, Gabe Gains and many others of the oldest citizens of Washington

The casket was furnished by Mr. Nailor, at a cost of two hundred dollars

The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Wm. A. Credit, pastor of the Berean Baptist church.

Mrs. Nailor was dressed in deep mourning as well as her entire family.

Mr. Sumner Wormley rendered a very effective solo, entitled Flee as a Bird from the Mountain.

Mr. Spear, the undertaker, attended in person and furnished one of his finest caskets.

Mr. and Mrs. Nailor are two of the oldest citizens of Washington and they always have had a high regard for colored people among whom they have been reared. They are both philanthophists and have often made liberal contributions for charitable institutions.

THE COLORED DEMOCRATS.

The delegates from this city to represent the colored democrats at Indianapolis, Ind. will be accompanied by a large delegation and will go over the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road on a special car.

LILY WHITE REPUBLICAN.

From the Headlight.

Without a doubt Mr. Cuney is one of the shrewdest politicians in Texas. He is not only adhered to by his own people and party, but is highly respected by the best democrats of the state. He has his eye on the "lily white" republicans of the Lone Star and will fill their path with many thorns before they shake off the brother in black. Southern republicanism, and northern democracy are two of the things that the negro looks at cross-eyed.

Marshall R. Smith has been sending pamphlets and circulars to leading men of Bristol, Pa., and to his neighbors in Burlington, N. J., charging them with conspiracy to rob him. They say his mind must have gone wrong.

Leopold Cohn an inmate of the Elmira Reformatory, testified before the investigating commission that despite all his efforts and good intentions to reform he was threatened with ten years' imprisonment for the crime of forging an order for an overcoat.

The bodies of four victims of the disaster to the tugboat Nicol, off Sandy Hook, have been washed ashore. Three have been identified. Thirty-eight persons are still known to be missing. An investigation of the causes of the loss of the tug will be begun by United States officials.

Joseph Whitsett, of Vineland, N. J., in a crazy fit drove a blacksmith's file into his wife's back. Then he got a razor and slashed her and his daughter in a frightful way, locked himself in the house and set fire to it. He had to be dragged from the flames. The daughter may die.

A burglar with few garments on robbed George Bartholomew, of Montclair, N. J., while he was sleeping, tied up his door with a clothes-line, gave his wife a good scare and escaped. Nathaniel Haynes, of Oyster Bay, L. I., was also robbed by an audacious thief.

ASTWOOD WITHDRAWS.

JUST AS THE BEE PREDICTED.

ONE CONVENTION.

Hon. H. C. C. Astwood who issued a call for another convention to meet at Montgomery, Ala., has withdrawn the call and will unite with Mr. Taylor.

Among other things Mr. Astwood says: "Party success being paramount to individual aspirations and to curtail the intrigues that are being used by those who are planning to bring about an inevetable rupture between the president of the league and the chairman of the executive committee, for the sole object of personal aggrandizements on the one side and the disorganization of negro Democracy on the other, thereby creating a spirit of Administration and anti-Administration factions among the negro Democrats, and as the league has always been and is now a staunch Administration organization, the call for the Indiana convention is therefore preferable to party disorganization."

"Assuming the responsibility that may come to me, from sore-headed critics and malcontents, for this action, in the interest of party harmony, as well as to thwart the baneful influences that are fast developing through the agencies of our political enemies to disrupt negro Democracy, after a careful discussion of all the issues involved by the parties, interested in the success of the party, the call issued for the convention to meet in Montgomery, Ala. on the 25th of July, proximo, is hereby withdrawn in favor of the call for the Indiana convention as it stands, and the order to elect delegates to the said Ala. convention is hereby revoked."

"To carry out in part the purpose for which the Alabama convention was called, and looking to the success of the regular nominees of the Democratic party in that state, an invitation is hereby given for a grand mass-meeting of negro Democrats under the auspices of the executive committee of the league to meet in the city of Momtgomery, Ala, on the 25th of July, proximo, instead of the convention called for that day, at which meeting it is expected the Hon. C. H. J. Taylor, president of the league, the chairman of the executive committee; Hon. R. G. Still, of Pennsylvania, and other prominent Democrats will speak. An invitation will also be given to the head of the State ticket, Col. Oats, to speak on that occasion."

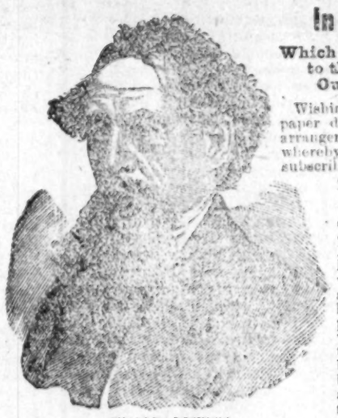
GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!

A SET OF THE

WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

In Twelve Large Volumes,

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.



CHARLES DICKENS.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever heretofore made. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unabridged and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER,
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For quarter of a century they have been read in every home and by every fireside of the civilized world. THE PULLMAN BOYCOTT.

IT IS EFFECTIVE ON MANY WESTERN RAILROADS.

The American Railway Union Have Taken Active Measures—Passengers and Officials Now Do the Work Formerly Done by Train Hands.

Chicago, June 27. — The boycott of the American Railway Union against the Pullman Company was put into force, and almost precipitated a riot. The Illinois Central switchmen struck. Traffic was completely tied up for several hours; then the railroad officials took the places of the strikers and succeeded in getting out two through trains. But at Grand crossing they were stopped, and the Pullman cars were side-tracked.

It was announced at noon by the American Railway Union that the strike ordered on the Great Western, the Northern Pacific, the Wisconsin Central and Baltimore and Ohio had become effective.

The only sign of the strike this morning is in the Illinois Central yards. The suburban trains are running few and far between, and then only when some passengers have courage enough to turn the switches. None of the other roads have been molested as yet. It is probable that there will be a general strike on the Illinois Central, as employees are holding a meeting this morning.

The police have just been sent to the Grand Central Depot to protect the Great Western trains, as it is understood this will be the next road which the strikers will attempt to bring under their control. Windows were broken on one Pullman car attached to the Illinois Central this morning as it was coming into the city. There were no passengers in the berth. The colored union railway men announced this morning that they would offer to fill the places of all the strikers with experienced colored railroad men.

The Illinois Central has issued a notice that it would not accept any freight. The road is practically tied up.

THE MINERS.

The Leaders Urge the Men to Resume Word.

Pittsburg, June 27.—District President Cairns, of the Miners' Union, issued a circular urging the miners to stop their guerilla fighting, go to work at the Columbus agreement and submit all minor disputes to a joint committee of miners and operators.

Youngstown, O., June 27.—The operators and miners of the Mahoning Valley have reached an agreement by which miners returned to work. The price of mining is to be left to President McBride, whose decision is to bind both parties.

ALAS THE COXEYITES.

The Commissary is Low and No Helping Hand Extended.

Washington, June 27.—The original Coxey army is not anxious to extend a fraternal hand to other tramp bands. The commissary is so low that their own meals are now few and far between. Browne turned Frye's followers out. Frye has joined Galvin, who is no better off. No interest is taken in them, and contributions have about ceased.

ISLAMISM.

The Sultan Checking the Advance of Christian Powers.

London, June 27.—The Standard this morning says that the Sultan of Turkey is sending, at his own expense, missionaries to spread Islamism in Africa, with a view of checking the advance of Christian powers.

Cholera in Belgium.

Washington, June 27.—A cablegram received at the Marine Hospital from Dr. Fairfax Irwin announces a serious outbreak of cholera in Belgium. There are fifty-four cases at Jemappes, and the disease has appeared at Liege, Seraing, St. Nicholas and Montaigu. The epidemic is widely scattered.

The Train Held Up.

Savannah, Ga., June 27.—Train No. 3, of the Savannah, Florida and Western Railroad, was held up near Homerville, 125 miles southwest of Savannah, by six masked white men. The safe in the express car was robbed of its contents, $1,222 in cash.

Labor Day a National Holiday.

Washington, June 27. — The House has passed the Senate bill to make Labor Day (the first Monday in September) a national holiday. It now requires only the President's approval to become a law.

Both Were Killed.

New Britain, Conn., June 27.—Amy and Ellen Monsell, of Newington, while walking the railroad tracks, stepped aside for a freight train and were struck by an express train running fifty miles an hour on the other track. Both were instantly killed.

A Youthful Hero.

Burlington, June 27.—Little Florence Elsey, the seven-year-old daughter of John Elsey, of Federal street, was badly burned about the head and face at a bonfire and undoubtedly owes her life to the heroic work of little Albert Smith, son of Jason Smith.

A Halter for Glory.

Troy, N. Y., June 27.—William Shindler, aged thirty-two years, committed suicide by hanging with a halter in a barn. Shindler squandered in the last year $1,100 which he inherited. He was out of work and penniless. He leaves a widow and two children.

For Governor of Maine.

Lewiston, Me., June 27.—The Hon. Charles F. Johnson, of Waterville, has been nominated by acclamation for Governor by the Democratic State Convention.

Three More Missing.

New York, June 27. — Three more men who went fishing on the ill-fated tug Nichols, Sunday, are reported missing. Apparently the disaster cost forty-two lives.

Died of Hydrophobia.

New York, June 28.—Walter E. Orcutt, thirty years old, a hotel keeper of Northampton, Mass., died of hydrophobia at the Pasteur Institute. About a month ago, while standing on the sidewalk in front of his hotel, Mr. Orcutt noticed the peculiar actions of a small dog that was racing violently up and down the street. Thinking that the animal was playing, he paid no more attention to it. A few minutes later, however, the dog made a savage attack upon Mr. Orcutt, biting him in the right leg. Then it was discovered that the dog was mad and it was shot.

To Cross Behring Strait.

Minneapolis, June 28. — Benjamin Lavigne has arrived from Montreal to make final preparations for a novel trip he expects to make with Charles Adolphus Murray, Earl of Dunmore. The plan is to make an attempt to cross the Behring Strait on the ice next winter. This has never been done. He is being aided in the enterprise by the Hudson Bay Company and the Alaska Commercial Company. The route will be via the Mackenzie and the Yukon rivers by canoe. The start will be made from Montreal late in July.

Burglars Near Rondout.

Rondout, N. Y., June 28.—Burglars entered the Post-Office at Glasco, and with tools stolen from a blacksmith shop, opened the safe and took about $300 in cash and stamps. They also took the contents of the money drawer in Philip A. Lasher's store adjoining. The burglars crossed the Hudson in a stolen boat. Abram Wood's mineral-bottling works here were entered Monday night, but the burglars were interrupted.

The Remains of the Saengerfest.

New York, June 28. — All that remains of the great Saengerfest in Madison Square Garden are a great heap of rubbish at one end of the building and a bunch of banners standing disconsolately in one corner, waiting for the societies that own them to come and claim them. There are eighteen of these baners, and it means that eighteen of the societies are still in New York. The celebration cost about $50,000.

Killed Under a Tree.

Fredonia, N. Y., June 28.—Near Bear Lake, about seven miles distant from this village, two daughters of farmer Edwin Blodgett, aged ten and twelve years respectively, were out in the fields when a storm came up. They fled for shelter to a large tree near by. They had scarcely reached the tree when lightning struck it. Both girls were instantly killed.

Morocco Paying Her Debts.

Tangier, June 28.—The Spanish cruiser conveying the treasury official who came from Madrid to collect the first instalment of the Moorish indemnity to Spain has left Mazagan. The treasury agent has received 1,500,000 pesetas of the indemnity and the payment of the remainder is promised shortly. The new Sultan, Abdul Aziz, retained 100,000 pesetas of the instalment with which to pay his army.

The Thieves Caught.

Omaha, Neb., June 28.—It is stated that the Pinkertons have succeeded in locating in this city all the men who had a hand in the robbing of W. L. Pollock, the New York jewelry drummer, on a train at Missouri Valley, Ia., two years ago. One of the men arrested is now serving time and the others will be arrested this week.

Coxey to Stump It.

Springfield, O., June 28.—"Gen." Coxey had a conference with T. J. Creagor, Chairman of the People's party State Committee. It was arranged that Coxey should stump the State with a view to starting large parties overland to the Populist State Convention August 16 and 17.

Left Poison for His Wife.

Toronto, Ont., June 28.—John Blockridge, an expressman, eloped with his sister-in-law, Miss Mary Palmer, and Mrs. Blockridge poisoned herself by taking prussic acid. It is said the husband bought the poison and left it in the house where his wife culd have access to it.

Prohibition Nominations.

Syracuse, June 28.—Francis E. Baldwin, of Elmira, was nominated for Governor by acclamation at the Prohibition State Convention. Justus Miller, of Troy, was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor, and Zachariah P. Taylor, of Rochester, for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Coxey Cost Uncle Sam $52,000 So Far.

Washington, June 28.—Attorney-General Olney has asked for an additional appropriation of $50,000 for United States Marshals, etc. So far the Coxey army disturbances have cost the Department of Justice more than $52,000.

Pierced by Hot Steel.

Newark, June 28.—Lawrence Hart, aged twenty-five, a rolling mill hand at the Atha and Illingworth steel works, was pierced through the stomach by a red hot steel bar, which slipped from his tongs as he was drawing it from the back of the rolls.

Reorganizing Chicago Gas.

Chicago, June 28.—A plan of reorganization of the seven companies composing the Chicago Gas Trust into a compact whole, so formed as to resist every attack, is under way.

Kentucky's Treasury Empty.

Frankfort, Ky., June 28.—The indications are that the Kentucky Treasury will be forced to suspend on June 30. The treasury has been almost barren for some time and is now nearly depleted.

The Panama Canal.

Paris, June 28.—The Panama Canal liquidator has signed an agreement with a new company, which has a capital of 1,500,000,000 francs, and undertakes to complete the canal.

The Gold Reserve.

Washington, June 28.—The withdrawal of $500,000 gold from the New York Sub-Treasury for export leaves the net treasury gold reserve stand at $66,500,000.

THE IRON JAW.

Stength of that Kind Can Be Acquired by Long Practice.

The iron-jawed performer in a circus now doing some eastern cities was visited by a reporter for the New York Press recently. She is a rosy-cheeked woman with smiling blue eyes, and no one looking at her two rows of even, white teeth would imagine that they could possibly stand the strain to which they are daily put.

"Any ordinary person," said she, "ought to lift thirty or forty pounds with his jaw, but I have lifted five men, weighing altogether 700 pounds. By developing the muscles of the jaw and neck a person of ordinary strength ought to be able to hold up 200 pounds with the jaw."

"Is an iron jaw a gift of nature?" she was asked, "or is it acquired?"

"Oh," she answered, "one must be born with an iron jaw in order to do such a performance as I do, although strength of that kind can be acquired. I began by lifting twenty-pound weights with my teeth, and then used heavier weights, until I could lift an object as heavy as myself. I have been in the business nine years now, and can sustain more than five times my weight with the strength of my teeth and jaws. Holding up and spinning around a heavy man with my teeth is about the same as holding up a barrel of flour in that way."

"Is that slide you make down the wire a dangerous feat?" she was asked.

"Well, no accident ever happened to me," she said. "I have no fear in doing it. Ordinarily I do not even use a netting under my trapeze, but here the law obliges me to. I shall not use one when I go out West."

"What are your sensations in going down the wire?"

"Well, I see nothing; my eyes are turned toward the roof. I hear a loud buzzing noise made by the wheel that goes over the wire. The cushion at the bottom is so arranged that it gives three or four feet when I strike it. If it did not I probably would have broken bones. In the Paris Hippodrome I used to slide down a wire 320 feet long."

"Are you yourself a foreigner—perhaps a countess or a duchess?"

"No, I am an American girl. I was born in Pittsburg. The qualifications necessary for such a business as I am in are nerve, courage and extraordinary strength. The circus business is one in which a woman gets as much wages as a man. Anna Dickinson, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Lilly Devereux Blake and the rest of the strong-minded women are always publicly admiring pluck in their sex. I think the circus women have it above all others."

Sand Gardens for Children.

At a meeting in Boston recently of the Moral Educational Association, Mrs. Kate Gannet Wells spoke on "Sand Gardens," which have proved such godsends to the children of the very poor. In Germany, says the Boston Advertiser, the sand gardens have long since become the favorite resorts not only for the poor children, but the very rich as well. For seven years the school gardens in Boston have been open, and in three years the Charlesbank Garden, with its grass, trees, flowers and glorious view of the river, has become a paradise not only for the hundreds of children, but for the weary mothers, who either leave their children in these gardens, under wise and watchful care, while they go to work, or else they carry their mending and sun themselves while the youngsters play.

These banks are also educational. During the "Fall of Babylon," for instance, it was enacted with the aid of paper soldiers from morning till night and Grecian history was as familiar to the children as bread and butter. There is many a pathetic story of the little crippled children who drink in pleasure and sunshine together. They are distinctly not kindergarten, not industrial and not denominational in religion. The poorest of the poor come. The great work is carried on by voluntary contributions; $1,400 will take care of 50,000 children. This is a distinct feature of hygienic education in city life, with a wonderful moral influence.

The Art of Getting On.

The best equipment that either men or women could have is definite knowledge, if it be only of one thing. The first question I ask those who come to me for advice, says a writer in Lippincott's, is: "What can you do?" If the answer is—as it almost invariably proves to be—"Anything," my heart fills with despair for the applicant. In the money-making world "anything" means "nothing." It is overrun with a vast army of incapables ready to rush in and undertake "anything." What is needed is some one who can do something as opposed to any one who can do anything. Competency is the only equipment that is worth anything now-a-days.

A Memorial to the Poet Keats.

Edmund W. Gosse writes to the London Times announcing a proposed English memorial to the poet Keats. He says that an American committee has been engaged during the last five years preparing it, and that the details have been kept absolutely secret, even in the United States. The movement was due to the energy of Mr. F. Holland Day, of Norwood, Mass. The work is now accomplished. Mr. Day has arrived in England with a marble bust of Keats, which will soon be unveiled in the parish church at Hampstead.

An English Corn Cure.

Here is a recipe for a paint suitable for either the hard or soft species of corn; it should be applied with a camel's hair brush on five or six successive nights, at the end of which time the upper portion can be easily removed, after the foot has been soaking in warm water. In the case of an old enemy, the treatment should be repeated until the growth has entirely disappeared. Thirty grains of salicylic acid, and five grains of Indian hemp, to be dissolved in half an ounce of fluid collodion.

A "Corner" in Stamps.

Stamp collectors say there is a "corner" in stamps, one firm in New York having bought in practically the whole issue extant of Columbian stamps. That firm must have a big warehouse.

NAPOLEON'S HOME LIFE.

He Used His Fingers for Forks and Sometimes Took His Soup After Dessert.

"After "Napoleon et le Femmes," the industrious and indefatigable M. Frederic Masson has now given to the public another entertaining and gossipy volume entitled "Napoleon Chez-lui," which is published in Dentu. Herein the author shows us the Great Conqueror at home, the interest of the descriptions being heightened by M. de Myrbach's amusing illustrations. Including Napoleon in bed, an imperial shave and His Majesty at table before one of those meals—chiefly consisting of chicken and pastry—washed down by well-watered Chambertin, which were despatched in a slovenly manner and in about seven minutes.

M. Masson neglects nothing. He follows the emperor from morning to night, tells how he wore his slippers until they were utterly dilapidated and how he had himself brused down with eau de Cologne every day, making the valet work as if he were scrubbing a donkey. At 6:30 every morning Constant—the chief valet—entered the Emperor's bedroom and flung the windows open. Meneval presented the letters and a servant brought in a cup of tea or orange flower water. Corvisart on entering was usually saluted with the words, "Ah! there you are, you great quack! Have you been killing many people lately?" While having a warm bath, after Constant had related the gossip of the day, the Emperor listened to Meneval's summaries of the newspapers. Next followed the levee, or "reception," at 9 o'clock the special audience and at 11 dejeuner. At this meal the Emperor frequently used his fingers as forks and cared little for the order of the service, sometimes eating soup last. He liked green haricot pods, but was always afraid of finding hairs in them. The meal was occasionally rather international in composition. Bonaparte being partial to many of the dishes popular in the countries wherein he had conducted campaigns. Thus, after Egypt, he became very fond of pilaff and dates. He was, however, most in favor of Italian frittered food and pastry, and liked chicken in every cooked form.

As to his occasional calls for soldiers' soup and commissariat bread, M. Masson believes that Napoleon only assumed his taste in that direction for parade purposes. He was known on one occasion to swallow a plate of military soup after having a hair pulled out of it—but then the soldiers were looking on. Had his cook, Dunan—a worthy descendant of Vatel—put army bouillon before him at the Tuileries, Napoleon would probably have flung the plate and its contents at the head of the chef. Dunan, by the way, was once about to resign because the Emperor refused to eat crepinettes de perdreau twice in one month, but he remained on at Duroc's suggestion, and mollified his mighty master by a dish of roast fowl. Now and then the dejeuner lasted longer than seven or eight minutes, but only when Napoleon had morning guests like Talma, David or Isabey. M. Masson has also a good deal to say about Bonaparte's enormous capacity for work, which caused him often to miss the official dinner hour, and to rise at 3 o'clock in the morning in order to study budgets, ministerial reports and army returns. After his second marriage there was less freedom in the Court. Etiquette was more strictly enforced than ever, and the Emperor became more inaccessible and Olympian. M. Masson modestly says that his book is only intended to provide contributions to history. In any case, it is far more interesting reading than many a work of fiction.—London Telegraph.

Woman's Ingenuity Rarely Fails.

Women, who, for various reasons, do their own dressmaking, well know the trouble and difficulty of properly fitting a waist. The draping of the skirt is more easily accomplished, even if Aunt Abie's method of calling in the hired man and draping it upon him has to be adopted at last. A woman set her wits to work recently, and hit upon a unique idea. She took an old waist that fitted her to perfection, and which buttoned down the front. She buttoned it, then sewed the buttonholes all tight and cut the buttons off. Then he took a piece of cardboard the size of the neck and sewed it in as a cover, and upon this she raised a pin cushion by means of rags and saw dust. The sleeves were cut off at the elbow and tightly tied, and then the figure was inverted and tightly packed with sawdust. This was allowed to settle for two days, and was then again punched and pounded until every crevice was rammed tight. Then another piece of cardboard was cut to fill the bottom orifice, and this was sewed in, and the whole figure covered with muslin to prevent the sawdust leaking, and to afford a good pin hold. The model is now the exact shape of the individual the dress is intended for, and all she needs to do is to place the model on the table, put on it a pair of corsets and fit the material over these. When the model grew "flabby" she tightened it by forcing the sawdust out of the arms into the bust, and refilling the arms with fresh sawdust.—Ladies' Home Journal.

His Honor Gets Even.

"The charge against this man, your honor is drunk and disorderly," said the officer.

"I don't deny it, judge," said the prisoner. "I got pretty drunk, I guess, but it was my first offence, and I know when I've had enough. I shan't do it again."

"In that case," said the magistrate, "I am disposed to be—but haven't I seen you before?"

"I reckon you have, judge. I live right across the street from you."

"You do, hey? Have you a lawn mower?"

"Yes."

"You get up at 5 o'clock in the morning and run it till breakfast time, don't you?"

"Yes. That's the kind of a man I am. I'm always busy and never let any of my time go to——"

"Thirty days. Take him away and call the next."—Chicago Tribune.

Beware.

Lady—Of course, you are always looking for work?

Tramp—Certainly. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.—New York Truth.

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF
PURE COD LIVER OIL
AND PHOSPHATES OF
LIME, SODA, IRON.

Cures Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all Scrofulous Humors.

Get the Genuine Article.—The great popularity of "Wilbor's Compound of Cod-Liver Oil and Lime" has induced some unprincipled persons to attempt to palm off a simple article of their own manufacture; but any person who is suffering from Coughs, Colds, or Consumption, should be careful where they purchase this article. The results of its use are its best recommendations; and the proprietor has ample evidence on file of its great success in pulmonary complaints. The Phosphates possess a most marvelous healing power, as combined with the pure Cod-Liver Oil by Dr. Wilbor. It is regularly prescribed by the medical faculty. Sold by A. B. WILBOR, Chemist, Boston, and all druggists.
